It takes time to learn how to be a good driver. The Illinois Graduated Driver Licensing (GDL) Program was established to aid young, novice drivers in this effort.

As chair of the Teen Driver Safety Task

Force, I brought together experts from across the State of Illinois to review Illinois' GDL laws. The recommendations of the task force made Illinois a national model regarding teen driver safety and have been lauded by such groups as the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, the National Transportation Safety Board and the National Safety Council. The recommendations were signed into law and took effect in January 2008. These provisions, along with the involvement of parents, will help teens gain the experience they need for a lifetime of safe, responsible driving.

TEXTING AND CELL PHONE USAGE

- Texting while driving is prohibited for all drivers in Illinois.
- Cell phone use while driving is prohibited for drivers under age 19, except in the case of an emergency.
- Cell phone use in construction and school zones is against the law for all drivers in Illinois.

PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY

The Secretary of State provides a Parent-Teen Driving Contract, available at www.cyberdriveillinois.com, that establishes parameters and boundaries between parents and teens to enable young drivers to acquire safe driving habits and skills.

A parent/legal guardian must provide written consent at the time a minor applies for a driver's license at a Driver Services facility. The parent/legal guardian also must verify that the applicant has completed at least 50 hours of practice driving, including 10 hours at night.

A parent/legal guardian may withdraw consent for the minor to hold a driver's license at any time, for any reason, until the driver turns 18 by contacting the Secretary of State's office. Driving privileges will not be reinstated until the parent/legal guardian again provides consent or until the driver turns 18. The teen driver must reapply for a driver's license, retake all applicable tests and pay the appropriate fees.
